Dear friends

Mon: †Felicula Katigbak

Our readings today tell us two beautiful stories about sinners who find mercy and reconciliation with God. The Church today wants us to see ourselves in these stories. Because this is the great message of the Gospel. This is the “good news” that we can turn to God and have forgiveness of our sins through God’s tender mercy.

We heard those beautiful words that the prophet Nathan spoke “The Lord ... forgives your sin; you are not to die.” Also Jesus said to the woman “your sins are forgiven.”

My dear brothers and sisters, the same mercy of God is always available to us, especially in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. In this beautiful Sacrament of Reconciliation we have a chance — always — to go back to God. A new opportunity to start again.

Today as we reflect on the beauty of God’s mercy and forgiveness, let us continue our journey of faith in this ongoing conversion — looking for Jesus, knowing that with him we will find that joy and peace that we all are looking for. - Fr Moses

Attention all Eucharistic Ministers: On your rostered day, please proceed to the Altar ONLY AFTER the Sign of Peace. Thank you.
