Dear friends,

It is really pleasing to meet you all here in the parish of St Michael's.

I was born in Seoul, South Korea and grew up there. In 2005 I was ordained to the priesthood in the Archdiocese of Seoul, Korea. After 5 years of ministry in Seoul, I was dispatched to Sydney as on-loan Priest according to the agreement between the Sydney and Seoul Dioceses. Here in Sydney, my first parish was Maroubra for only 6 months and then I moved to Caringbah, Penshurst-Peakhurst, and this time I have been appointed administrator of St Michael's Parish, Daceyville.

This is the very first time to be in full charge of a Parish so I need your help and support in many ways. I believe this is God's blessing and a gift that we can be together as one family of God. So I like to share with you all this joy of being one family of God and his blessings through the Sacraments and parish life.

Fr Moses Kim, Parish Administrator

We extend a very warm welcome to Fr. Moses Kim our new Parish Administrator. Fr. Moses comes to us from St. Declan's Penshurst. We thank Fr. John the Parish Priest of St Declan's and his community for their great support of Fr. Moses during his three years with them. We will continue to extend this similar gesture to Father during his term with us. May God bless Fr. Moses in his new pastoral role at St. Michael's
