St Martin of Tours

Martin was conscripted against his will into the Roman army at age 15. Several years later after his baptism, Martin said he could not take part in the bloodshed, saying "I am a soldier of Christ. It is not lawful for me to fight." St. Martin is best known for having cut in two pieces his lambs wool-lined cavalryman's cloak to give half to a nearly naked beggar outside the gates of Amiens where Martin was stationed. He would probably have given the man his whole cloak but for the fact that Martin, too, was nearly naked, having already given away much of his own clothing to those in need. He founded the oldest monastery in Europe, he converted thousands of pagans, and he performed astonishing miracles which earned him the reputation of being a saint even during his life. St Martin of Tours raised three people from the dead and he brought about the reconciliation of feuding groups, both bishops and monks.

St Josaphat

Josaphat Kuncewicz was born about the year 1580 and given the name John at baptism. While being instructed as a child on the sufferings of our Saviour, his heart is said to have been wounded by an arrow from the sacred side of the Crucified. In 1618, he became archbishop of Polotzk. In this position he worked untiringly for Church reunion. He was a great friend of the poor. The foes of union decided to assassinate him. In a sermon, he himself spoke of his death as imminent. When he visited Vitebsk (now in Russia), his enemies attacked his lodging and murdered a number of his companions. He hastened toward the mob and, full of love, cried, "My children, what are you doing? If you have something against me, see, here I am." With furious cries of "Kill the papist!", they rushed upon him with gun and sword. Josaphat's body was thrown into the river but emerged, surrounded by rays of light, and was recovered. His murderers, when sentenced to death, repented their crime and became Catholics.
